

Other Preservation Entities

National Trust for Historic Preservation:

The national preservation non-profit. The Western Field Office is located in Denver.

Colorado Preservation, Inc.

A statewide non-profit. Major programs include Saving Places Conference, Endangered Places program, Historiccorps, and direct preservation efforts.

Colorado Historical Foundation

A private non-profit dedicated to support history and preservation projects. Major programs include a historic preservation Revolving Loan Fund for Colorado and an active statewide Easement program.

Other Preservation Entities

History Colorado

The state government agency charged with documenting and sharing Colorado History. Operates several major programs, including the State Historical Fund.

- Colorado State Historical Fund
- State Historic Preservation Office (reviews and approves some tax credit projects)
- History Colorado Center

Denver Landmark Preservation Commission

The local, city-agency charged with implementing Denver's Preservation Ordinance. This is the body that reviews designation and demolition applications and conducts design review for designated structures. It includes a 9-member mayor-appointed group of architects, historians, and other design and construction professionals. It is staffed by three City Planners.

Resources

www.historicdenver.org

Tips on

- Maintenance
- Energy efficiency
- Tax credits
- Masonry restoration
- Windows

Resources

Historic Denver, Inc.
Contractor Resource List
Summer 2016

Resources

Research Guides

- Popular
 - Denver Building History Tutorial
 - Building Plans and Drawings
- Genealogy
 - Denver Ancestry Records
- Denver
 - Denver Building Permits
 - Denver History
 - Denver Street Name and Number Changes
 - Swastikas
- Building Histories
 - 1918 Estate and Fire Insurance Advertisements
- African American
- All Research Guides: A-Z

RESEARCH TOOLS & A-Z
Indexes, directories, maps, atlases, city records, collections and more.

RESEARCH SERVICES & ACCESS
Copies and reproductions, how to access and use the collections and how to contact our experts.

PLAN YOUR VISIT
Locations, hours, calendars, transportation, interior maps and more.